1. Twelve twin-engine low-wing monoplanes and three biplanes were parked at the WITTSTOCK (N 54/T 11) airfield. The village of Alt DABER bordering the airfield to the north-west had been evacuated by all civilians. The airfield CO was a major

2.

The trucks were loaded with about 28x60x100 inch boxes. The rounded upper sections of the boxes had sheet-metal coverings.

Comment:

The occupation of the WITTSTOCK airfield by twin-engine aircraft is reported for the first time. In connection with the previously reported transfer of the WITTSTOCK fighter regiment to LAERZ it is considered possible that the WITTSTOCK airfield has been occupied by another air unit, possibly by a bomber unit.

The kind of transport boxes mentioned in para 2 is unknown.
